American Heirloom

Timber Range:

The warmth and charm of a natural wood shake shingle is found in Timber Range. American Heirloom has taken the profile features of Timber Range directly from nature. The deeply grooved graining effect and rusticated edge detail at the butt end of Timber Range are reminiscent of natural wood shake. Timber Range is offered in color blends that have an underlying natural wood reference of warm tones. Striking variety is available from blend to blend. Sun kissed browns, rosy taupes and mossy greens are all part of the Timber Range color palette.

Seaboard Quarry:

Seaboard Quarry with its intrinsic slate characteristics, is naturally paired with the classic architectural styles of French Country, French Provincial, English Country, French Farmhouse and Victorian.

Old Southwest:

The classic high barrel profile of American

Old Southwest:

Heirloom Old Southwest references the shape and feel of historic mission clay tiles. The sculptural elegance of Old Southwest makes it an ever popular choice. Architecture in the Western States chronicles a long history of Spanish influence. Old Southwest blends are the perfect choice for many of these styles including Spanish Colonial, Spanish Mission, Spanish Villa, Italianate and Mediterranean.

Camino Real

The Camino Real Collection from Eagle Roofing Products allows you to enjoy the beauty of Southwestern styling with the durability and affordability of concrete. Echoing the architecture of the early Spanish missions, this Southwestern style of roof tile collection boasts two distinctly different looks. A smooth surface, and a textured brushed surface. The 3 brushed colors shown below are truly reminiscent of old world buildings. Our time tested techniques have allowed us to create an authentic, rustic appearance.

Cityscapes

The new Cityscapes collection of blends from Eagle Roofing Products boasts versatility in both color and design. These specially engineered concrete roof tile are available in tonal ranges with soft hues which complement every architectural style. Whether Prairie or California Ranch, the natural wood shake look of New Orleans, Hershey, Nantucket or Arlington are sure to convey the underlying reference of wood tones.
