High-Definition Color and Contrast Create a Designer Look.

IKO Royal Estate designer laminate shingles take hi-def to breathtaking heights of sophistication. Designed as a step-up from our architectural shingles, IKO Royal Estate offers a beautiful upscale look at an equally attractive price.

Inspired by nature, the shingles' random, smaller tabs create the appearance of genuine slate tiles. Deep contrasting shadow bands further accentuate the high-definition look.

Matching hip and ridge cap shingles are available to protect vulnerable roof areas and complete the stunning designer look.

¹Product developed with reference to ASTM E108/UL 790.
