

OPEN

up the possibilities

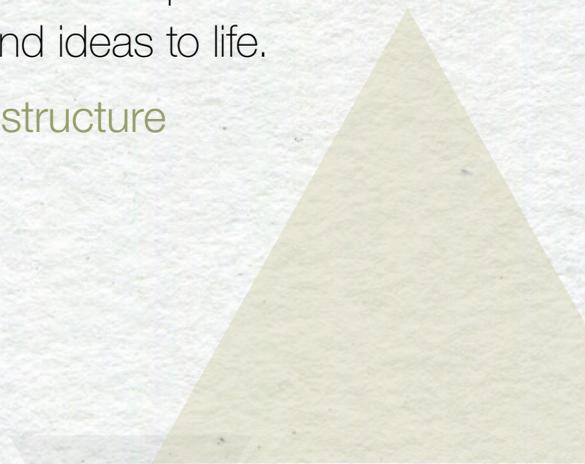

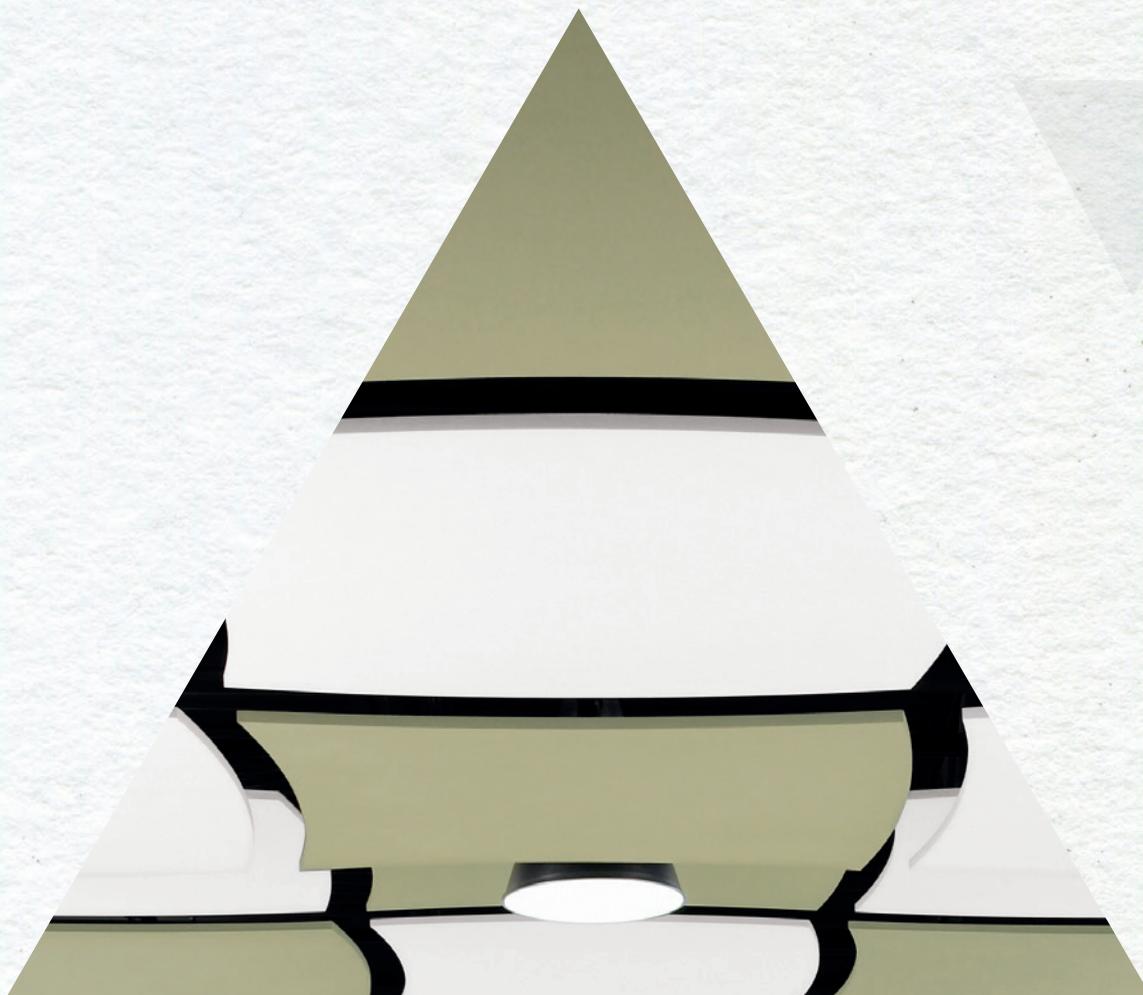

Armstrong[®]
CEILING & WALL SOLUTIONS

ARMSTRONG CEILING SOLUTIONS offer a diverse range of options you can turn to for your exposed structure projects – from canopies & clouds to baffles & blades, along with custom specialty options like metal and wood. And now, there's InvisAcoustics™, a new direct-to-deck panel that gives you the industrial feel of exposed structure spaces and reduces noise, the number one problem in exposed structure spaces.

Now, we've opened up the possibilities with our expanded portfolio of standard and custom exposed structure ceiling solutions. The You Inspire™ Solutions Center can help bring your most unique, one-of-a-kind ideas to life.
